Ice Harbor closes lock today for inspection

Pasco, Wash. – The navigation lock at Ice Harbor Dam will be out of service for several hours today for maintenance inspections. The lock will close at 4 p.m. and reopen at 8 p.m., according to an U.S. Army Corps of Engineers official here.

“This short closure is necessary for inspection of the North shore fish pumps for future contract work,” said Ann Glassley, a Walla Walla District navigation official.

For more information on the lock outage, call Carl Knaak at (509) 527-7113 or Ann Glassley at (509) 527-7115.
